Mr. Devyatkin in 1994, his third year of conducting the Beaufort Symphony

Maestro Frederick Devyatkin, conductor since 1992, has captivated audiences with an array of music ranging from classical to entertainment favorites. During each concert, audiences are delighted by his educational and sometimes amusing insights specific to the music and composers.

Maestro Frederick Devyatkin began studying violin at age 6. He studied with Erick Friedman, at Manhattan School of Music, David Nadien, former concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic, and William Preucil, former concertmaster of the Cleveland Orchestra.

Living in Savannah, Mr. Devyatkin is the orchestra director for St. Andrew's School. Mr. Devyatkin also conducts the Beaufort Symphony Youth Orchestra. When he is not teaching, playing his violin or conducting a symphony orchestra, Fred is taking photographs, riding his bike or swimming.

We welcome musicians interested in performing with The Beaufort Symphony Orchestra, Inc. or the Beaufort Symphony Youth Orchestra.

BSO HISTORY

The BSO represents an example of how a regional community can build and sustain an orchestral ensemble, offering access to live symphonic music outside of major metropolitan centers.

Its combination of adult ensemble and youth education fosters continuity of musical culture in the Lowcountry.

Through its repertoire and outreach, the orchestra helps "Keep the Music Live," as their motto puts it, and strengthens cultural life in Beaufort County and surrounding areas.

Founded in 1985 as the Beaufort Chamber Orchestra, the ensemble began as a small group of local string musicians under conductor Peter Dunden. It quickly expanded, adding more instruments and evolving into a full symphony orchestra. In the early 1990s, it was renamed the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra (BSO), reflecting its broader repertoire and growth. Since 1992, Frederick Devyatkin has served as Music Director, guiding the BSO to become a 45+ member ensemble performing four annual concerts ranging from classical to pops.

Thank You

The Symphony would like to thank some special friends for their soiree support this season.

BEAUFORT SYMPHONY YOUTH ORCHESTRA

Welcome to a New Season with the Beaufort Symphony Youth Orchestra (BSYO)!

Our Mission

The Beaufort Symphony Youth Orchestra (BSYO), in partnership with the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra, is committed to nurturing young musicians through high-quality orchestral training, confidence-building performance experiences and exposure to professional musical pathways.

Our mission goes beyond notes and instruments—we aim to inspire a lifelong love of music. Whether our students pursue music in college or simply carry it with them into their communities, the skills they gain here—discipline, collaboration and perseverance—will shape their futures.

We take a two-pronged approach to this mission:

1. Professional Exposure: Each season, the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra welcomes guest solo artists. BSYO students are encouraged to attend rehearsals, connect with these professionals, and learn firsthand about the dedication and journey required to reach their level.
2. Real-World Experience: Advanced BSYO students may be invited to perform with the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Fred. This immersive experience gives them a glimpse into the expectations and rewards of performing in a professional or community orchestra.

Our Motto: Encouragement

At BSYO, encouragement is at the heart of everything we do. We welcome young musicians from all educational backgrounds—public, private and homeschool—while maintaining high standards of excellence through auditions.

Auditioning fosters professionalism and gives each student a clear path for growth and advancement each year.

BEAUFORT SYMPHONY YOUTH ORCHESTRA

To support every student's journey, we offer several forms of scholarship support, with special emphasis on private lessons. One-on-one instruction develops not only skill but accountability, discipline and a deeper passion for music. This is especially crucial for younger students acclimating to the orchestra environment as well as for advanced students seeking to attend top-tier programs such as the Brevard Music Center or the South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts.

Ways to Contribute

Your support can make a powerful difference in a student's life. Here's how you can help:

1. Youth Orchestra Scholarships Help us ensure that no child is turned away due to cost. BSYO dues are $175 per student, and donations help cover these fees for families in need.
2. Private Lesson Scholarships Cover 50% of weekly private lesson costs.
Full-year sponsorship: $1,200/student
Monthly sponsorship: $200/student
3. Instrument Donations Many students borrow school instruments and cannot take them home to practice. If you have a quality instrument that's no longer in use, consider donating or lending it to the BSYO. Your gift could become a young musician's key to progress.
4. Summer Music Camp Scholarships From beginner camps for younger students to elite programs such as Brevard and Meadowmount for advanced players, summer study takes students to the next level. Your donation can help them get there.

Growing the Orchestra

Under the leadership of Ami Rabinowitz, our feeder program has expanded into a year-round cadet orchestra and a mentored quartet program. Students interested in joining an ensemble or starting private lessons can contact Ami at 843-263-6439.

Community Engagement

BSYO students regularly share their talents through public performances across Beaufort County. We perform three concerts annually, with six total performances at multiple venues. If you haven't yet attended a BSYO concert, we invite you to join us! Concert dates and locations are available on the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra website.

All contributions are tax-deductible and directly support scholarships, lessons, instruments, and enrichment opportunities for our students. To contribute, please contact:

The Prodigy Project

The Prodigy Project is a one-of-a-kind program that brings exceptionally gifted young performers from around the globe to Beaufort. These rising stars receive airfare, housing and compensation as they rehearse and perform with the Beaufort Symphony Orchestra.

This initiative not only enriches our local arts scene but also inspires our BSYO students by showing them what's possible through passion and hard work. The Prodigy Project is 100% donor-funded—and we invite you to help us continue this inspiring tradition.

Let's Make Music Together

Thank you for being part of the BSYO family. Together, we're building not only great musicians—but confident, creative, and community-minded young people.
